In the riot trial yesterday, the case for the defense was opened by Mr. Green Shields, who said the chief line of defense would be to prove the prisoner's insanity, to which several successful men testified. The case was much excited during the examination as to his sanity.

The principal New York newspapers here announce their willingness to receive subscriptions for the Grant monument, to which $7,000 was subscribed yesterday. It is proposed to limit the time for subscribing, so as to guard against a repetition of the Bartholomew experience.

Connecticut farmers are becoming alarmed on account of a new kind of potato beetle which has just made its appearance in different parts of the State. The bugs are entirely unlike the Colorado beetle. They are black and somewhat longer than the common bug, more active, and fly more readily.
The pests come in colonies, and destroy a whole plant in a very short time.

Sixty criminals, says a Moscow despatch, who had been sentenced to exile to Siberia, while en route rose against their guards and, although unarmed, began a desperate fight for liberty. The battle lasted for a long time, and the soldiers were absolutely unable to conquer their manacled assailants. Twenty of them were shot dead, and of the other forty, thirty succeeded in making good their escape.

Mark Twain writes in reference to Grant's burial place: "How did our predecessors come to bury their great dead in this deserted place? But as long as American civilization lasts, New York will likely be object to the common and strongest objection to New York is that it is not 'National' ground. Let us give ourselves no uneasiness there. Wherever Grant's body lies, that is National ground."

There did not remain to the Grant family a single uniform in which to clothe his remains. Not even a sword was left to lay upon his coffin. Grant's personal trophies and effects were taken by the Government. The Government did not leave the semblance of a military emblem with the Grant family.
Thus far the officials at Washington have acted in accordance with the thought of the lack of a uniform and sword for the dead soldier.

The President and Cabinet will leave Washington for New York in a special car August 5th. Apartments have already been secured at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. It is not likely that the President will return to Washington immediately after the funeral, as it is his purpose to take a few weeks' rest and recreation in the Adirondack mountains as soon as he can get away. Dr. Ward and Colonel Lamont will probably be his only companions in the mountains.

Action will soon be taken for the organization of committees to represent the entire country for the erection of a suitable monument above General Grant's grave. Pending this, the Grant Memorial Committee calls on all newspapers, railroads, telegraph and express companies, postmasters, banks, commercial bodies and exchanges, manufacturing and business establishments to cooperate in the immediate collection of contributions to be forwarded to Drexel, Morgan & Co., for this committee, or to the major of New York, all contributions to be acknowledged.

The tribute of the Mobile (Alabama) Reporter to Grant is this: Grant conquered us, but he did not subjugate us. He caused no man to pass under the yoke. He spared us the final disgrace. He took us by the hand, and led us to the side arms, left with the men their horses and mules to till the ground, and sent us home to our families to remain in peace unmolested. The North opened Pandora's box upon us, but Grant left hope within it. He grasped the hand of our Lee and protected him from the political hyenas. God bless him for what he did! For that act may God bless him in the spirit world to which his brave son has winged its flight.

The funeral car to receive General Grant's body on arrival at New York, is being constructed at the city of New York. It will be of cloth paneled with satin and lined with silk. The whole structure is to be twenty feet high and the most imposing thing of the kind ever seen in the country. It will be drawn by thirty black horses, each led by a colored groom. The route of the funeral as now planned will be from the City Hall up Broadway to Fourteenth Street, through Fourteenth Street to Fifth Avenue, up Fifth Avenue to Fifty-fifth Street, thence to the Boulevard and up that street to Seventy-second Street to the Riverside drive, up which the procession will pass to the site of the tomb. The distance of the march will be about six miles.

Dr. Newman says: "Only a perverted story of the central's baptism has thus far been published, and a correct account of it ought to be given. On the 23d day of April they called me at 5 o'clock in the morning.
The physicians thought he would last but a few minutes. Mrs. Grant and the General's sister came to me and said the General had never been baptized. I expressed my regret that he had not been baptized in a Methodist church. I learned that he was the only son in the family who had not been baptized. After speaking with the General's sister, I said I would baptize him if he were conscious and desired it. After prayer, Fred went into an adjoining room and brought out a silver pitcher with water in it. I spoke to the General about the matter. He opened his eyes and said: 'Doctor, I thank you; I had intended to take that step myself.' The rites of baptism were then performed. It was a most impressive scene."

DEAD ON THE HEIGHTS.

Col. Grant Invites His Father's Old Cabinet Members to the Obsequies.

Minute Guns to be Fired at Saratoga When the Train Goes By.

The Body to Rest in a Paradise of Flowers at Albany.

Grant's Old Colleagues Invited.
Mount McGregor, July 31.—The following invitation to ex-member's of his father's cabinet was issued to-day by Colonel Fred.
Grant:

The undersigned respectfully invites all ex-members of his father's cabinet, to attend the funeral, to be held on the 8th proximo, in New York. Gentlemen accepting this invitation are respectfully requested to advise General Hancock of their intention to be present, who will assign them appropriate places in the procession.

Mount McGregor, July 31.—Ex-Postmaster General Creswell, of General Grant's cabinet, arrived on the train this morning.

NEW YORK, July 31.—Arrangements for General Grant's funeral so far as relates to General Hancock's division are nearly completed.

H. A. Seddins, of Washington, wrote suggesting that a detail of 100 men from each regiment that served under Grant be present in the procession.

Sergeant-at-arms C. W. P. Canaday has telegraphed that the Vice-President and members from the Senate would attend the obsequies.

Colonel G. S. Gillespie, U. S. A., General Geo. B. H. Haverly, Brevet Brigadier-General, T. F. Rodenburgh, of Bath, Maine, were appointed additional aides. Colonel Roger Jones has been telegraphed to fire minute guns at Saratoga during the progress of the funeral train.

The Chicago Pool Sellers.
CHICAGO, July 31.—The movement to suppress the pool rooms in this city is not viewed with alarm by the pool sellers.
There is no law upon the statute book making pool selling or buying of pool tickets an offense. The city ordinances require all gambling to be suppressed and all gambling tools to be destroyed, but the pool sellers claim that they do not keep gaming houses and that their customers do not gamble.

The difference is that, whereas in ordinary gambling-rooms the gamblers are purely of chance, such as the turn of a card or the fall of a ball in a roulette, here the pool selling is a matter of skill, of information, and of backing one's opinions. They claim to have found legal decisions to uphold their case, and say they stand proudly upon the same bottom as the speculators in cereals or stocks on margin.

The pool rooms are particularly harmful because young men grow into them and boys at any hour of the day, with the smallest sums, and without fear of attracting attention in the crowd. During the day while in the city they learn to gamble, and during the lunch hour alone, and if they come down town evenings and visit regular gambling dens the pool room is the cause of their downfall. Most young men and boys are afraid to venture into gambling halls, but their reluctance is usually quickly overcome by frequenting the pool room.

A rule in all of the pool rooms is that unless one is not to buy tickets, but fully one-half of the customers are bootleggers.

The Day at Saratoga.
SARATOGA, July 31.—The weather is fine and clear and attendance good. The track is heavy, as a result of last night's storm.
The first race, six furlongs, was won by Bonnie S., with Gold Ban second and Baron Faversham third. Time, 1:18 1/2.

The second race, for maiden 2-year-olds, one mile, was won by Tontine, with Spaulding second and Guidette third. Time, 1:46 1/2.

The third race, one mile, was won by a colt named Girdle, with a time of 1:40 1/2.
The fourth race, one mile and a quarter, was won by George L., with Blanton second, and Compensation third. Time, 2:13.

The fifth race, one and one-quarter miles, was won by Tarquin, with Guy second, and Glennam third. Time, 2:28.

Another Strike in Cleveland.
CLEVELAND, July 31.—Three hundred men and boys, employed in the Lake Erie boat works, went out on a strike this morning on account of a ten per cent. reduction in wages. The reduction was made several days ago, and the men finally decided that they would not stand it, as they had accepted a ten per cent. cut about a year ago.
Only the boat makers, not makers and boys were affected, and they wished to continue work, but were forced out by the others.

The workers are now in the superior tendent announced that the works will not be put in operation until the employees accept the reduction.

Sheridan Keeps a Close Mouth.
CHICAGO, July 31.—General Sheridan arrived from the West this morning, and will leave direct for Washington this afternoon.
The General is in excellent health. Concerning the troubles in the Territory, he has expressed no opinion, and while he had settled views respecting the Indian question, they would be expressed only to the President in person, as that was in the main the mission upon which he had been sent. Any expressions which had been credited to him concerning the situation were unauthorized and unfounded.

Doubling Up on Railroad Employees.
YONKERS, July 31.—It is expected there will be serious trouble on this division of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad, caused by the company running double-header freight. A meeting of all the employees has been called for Sunday in Cleveland, and they will insist on one more breakman to each train, or strike.

A Fierce "Mill" in Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, July 31.—This morning at an early hour John Beck and Philip Bulger, local pugilists, fought eleven rounds with sawdust gloves for a purse of $200. The fight took place in a barn ten miles from the city, and resulted in the defeat of Bulger, who was knocked out and terribly punished.

Worked for Nineteen Years.
NEW YORK, July 31.—The nineteenth anniversary of the completion of the Atlantic cable was last Wednesday, and from that day to this there has not been one moment interruption of telegraphic communication, some of the cables being always in working order.

They Should Have Resigned.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—Six chiefs of divisions in the Second Auditor's office have been requested to resign. They are Thomas C. Bailey, F. H. Goodrich, C. Towel, Thomas Bathbone, H. A. Whallon and C. G. Snow.

Resigned Before He Was Bounced.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The resignation of Edward P. Champlin, Receiver of Public Money at Deadwood, D. T., has been accepted.

A New California Postmaster.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The President today appointed Albert O. Bristol Postmaster at Pasadena, Cal., vice Romayne Williams.

THE QUEEN OF THE TURF.

Maud S. Lowers the Trotting Record to a Mile in 2:08 3-4.

CLEVELAND, July 30.—Maud S. renewed her claims to the title of "Queen of the Turf" at Glenville track to-day, in the presence of 10,000 people. The fleet little mare trotted a mile over a slow course in 2:08 3/4. This beats her previous record by half a second, and is one second and a half faster than the best mile ever trotted by any other horse. The trial was for a cup, and the time goes on record. The day was warm.
There had been heavy showers during the night, and morning broke with a great bank of damp-looking clouds fringing the Western sky. The heavens gradually put on a cheerful aspect, the sun grew hot and the air muggy. These conditions seemed favorable to fast time, but

THE TRACK WAS HEAVY.
The three-quarter stretch was muddy, but the sun and a half a dozen drags improved it as the day wore on, and when Maud S. started to break her record, the course was in fair condition. It was not in the opinion of the management, a fast one.

After a preliminary warning she struck a splendid clip, and twenty rods from the jingles stand Bair nodded for the word.
Spain held the watch and followed four or five lengths behind, more to post Bair as to the speed that was being made than as a help to the mare.

THE QUEEN WENT AWAY FAST.
And the first eighth post was reached in 16 seconds. She rounded the turn and headed for the quarter. The turn was a trifle too sharp, and she went into the air. Bair stopped her and went back for another start.
When she came down the stretch for the second time she appeared to be maddened, but Bair wanted the word and it was given.
The mare recovered herself before she had gone far, and settled herself down to an even clip that was like a whirlwind. She reached

THE FIRST QUARTER IN 32 3/4.
At a 2:10 clip. Then Bair began to urge her, and she trotted the next quarter in 32 seconds at a 2:08 clip, and the half in 1:04 1/2.
She flew like a bird, and old timers began to declare she was breaking her wonderful record. Passing the half she increased her speed, and went over the back stretch at a terrific gait. The third quarter was trotted in 31 seconds, the fastest one of the mile. On the lower turn she was seen to raise her head suddenly, and it seemed certain that she would go off her feet. Bair caught her, however, and on she flew. Coming up the home stretch

AN UNUSUAL STRAIN RAN TO TELL ON HER.
And she slowed up. Bair applied the whip, however, and she responded quickly. She dashed under the wire at a tremendous clip, having finished the last quarter in 31 1/4 seconds, and the mile in 2:08 3/4.

No one except the judges and reporters knew the record had been broken. There was great excitement on the judge's stand.
The watches of the official time, President Wm. Edwards, C. F. Emery and N. L. Hunting, had stopped at 2:08 3/4. Edwards made the announcement and a wild scene followed.

RAIL WAS LOADED DOWN WITH MESSAGES.
And the mare was greeted with a beautiful floral collar. Edwards hastily wrote the following telegram:

Robert Bonner, New York: The Cleveland Association congratulate you most heartily and thank you most sincerely for allowing your peerless Queen, Maud S., to show the people how easily she beats her record in the wonderful time of 2:08 3/4, on a track certainly one second slow, having had a hard rain at midnight. (Signed) Wm. Edwards, President.

SWUNG OFF THIS MORNING.
An Ohio Murderer Sent to Eternity
By the Hemp Route.

COLUMBUS, July 31.—Valentine Wagner, a German, of Morrow county, was executed at the Ohio Penitentiary this morning for the killing of his brother-in-law, Daniel Sheehan, in December, 1882. This was the first hanging to take place at the Ohio Penitentiary under the new law requiring that all executions in that State shall take place at the prison.

The trouble between Wagner and Sheehan was of long standing, of a family nature, and the date named Wagner went to Sheehan's house, told him he had come to kill him, and immediately drew a revolver and shot him and fired again, wounding him in the arm. The trial was long and tedious, the Supreme Court affirming the judgment of the lower court, and the Circuit Court of the United States affirming the judgment of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Will Rest Among Fragrant Flowers.
ALBANY, N. Y., July 31.—Remains of the reception of General Grant's remains here are complete. It is stated that fully 100,000 people will be in the city on that day, 80,000 having been here when Lincoln's body lay in state. After a short parade the body will be taken direct to the Executive Chamber and placed in the center of the room, which is sixty feet long by fifty feet wide.
The chamber will be heavily hung with selections from the 168-regimental battle flags now in the Bureau of Military Statistics.
Banks and pillars of flowers will be placed in convenient niches in the room. The oil candle near the catafalque. The dead General will rest will be placed upon a urn upon which the remains of the dead General will rest will be hidden from view by choice cut flowers.

The people will march in pairs between files of soldiers to the Executive Chamber and file on each side of the catafalque in single column, passing out at the further end of the room. Colonel Fred Grant and the members of the family will be the guests of Governor Hill at the Executive Mansion, as will be also probably General Hancock, Sherman and Logan. A large number of State officials of the Eastern and Western States are expected to attend and accompany the remains to New York. The military will take possession of the Capitol at noon on the day the body arrives here, and hold it until the funeral.

The programme as outlined above will be submitted to Colonel Grant for his approval. The sons of President Garfield will probably attend.

Will Be Brought Back Dead Himself.
WASHINGTON, July 31.—The Secretary of State received from Lima last evening a telegram announcing the death of Lieutenant Nye, naval attaché to the American Legation at that place. The Lieutenant was instructed to accompany the remains of ex-Minister Phelps to the United States, but before the date of his departure telegraphic communication was cut off. No particulars have been received.

No Water, and the Weather is Hot.
ASHLAND, Penn., July 31.—A water famine still prevails in the neighborhood, and is growing worse every day. The dam which supplies Ashland with water will not last till Monday. There is much excitement.

Business Failures This Week.
NEW YORK, July 31.—The business failures of the last seven days were 201, as against 215 last week, and 225 the week previous to last.

Arrived in Vienna.
VIENNA, July 31.—Mr. Lee has arrived here to take charge of the American Legation.

ROUGH ON RANDOLPH.

The London "Standard" Sizes Up the Young Statesman in Severe Style.

Gladstone to Start To-Morrow on a Cruise to Norway.

The Remains of Sir Moses Montefiore Consigned to the Tomb To-Day.

The "Standard" on Churchill.
LONDON, July 31.—The Standard, which is the accepted Tory organ, uses the following language in its attack on Lord Randolph Churchill, as leader of the Conservative party: "To speak plainly, Lord Randolph Churchill has been puffed in the press with admirable assiduity, with a well organized clique, which is always ready to cry prologues whenever he opens his mouth, but it is all in vain. The Liverpool incident shows the extent of the alarm which Churchill's blundering and blustering have inspired within the bosom of his party, and it was a thousand times better that they should be exposed to the humiliation of such things as Churchill's attacks on Earl Spencer's government of Ireland, for unless the government disavows these attacks, it will feel their bad effects in the future more seriously than it has yet contemplated. The truth is, Lord Churchill has been much over-rated.
If his pranks be encouraged longer

HE WILL SMASH THE GOVERNMENT.
And the Conservative party. We will follow Salisbury, but we will not follow this overgrown schoolboy without knowledge sufficient to fathom his own ignorance of statesmanship. It is a common saying that Lord Churchill is equally ridiculed with Joseph Chamberlain, and the popular estimate is not far wrong."

No Amendment Wanted.
LONDON, July 31.—The House of Commons last night rejected, by a vote of 105 to 62, the Postmaster-General's amendment to the six penny telegraph bill. The bill is by the late Postmaster-General, Mr. Lefevre, making the cost of a twelve-word telegram, including address, six pence, and passed in the committee.

The Burial of Sir Moses.
RAMSGATE, July 31.—The remains of Sir Moses Montefiore were buried here this afternoon. Business was suspended and the shops closed. The weather was cloudy and the attendance was small. The funeral rites were of an unostentatious character, and the coffin was placed beside that containing the dust of the philanthropist's wife.

Glasgow As Bad As London.
GLASGOW, July 31.—At a meeting here today the Provost of Glasgow declared, in speaking of the revelations made by the Pall Mall Gazette, that inquiries which have been made showed that there prevailed in Glasgow a system of corruption of minor or major magnitude similar to that which the Gazette had exposed in London.

Russian Arrest of a German Spy.
ST. PETERSBURG, July 31.—A German reserve officer has been arrested by the Russian authorities at Jacobstadt, on the Baltic, as a spy, and on his person have been found letters addressed to his wife containing descriptions and plans of Russian forts and fortifications.

Papal Ceremonies in Rome.
ROME, July 31.—The Pope, with great religious ceremony, held a public consistory yesterday, at which the newly-appointed Cardinals were created. A secret Papal consistory was held, at which there were other ceremonies and other
